ADVANCING IN FORENSICS: A WORKSHOP TO PREPARE YOU FOR YOUR NEXT PROMOTION

September 30, 2024 | 1200 - 1500 EST

COURSE DESCRIPTION

No matter what forensic leadership role you are interested in stepping into (trainer, team lead or supervisor), rocking your next promotional interview is all about being properly prepared, but preparation starts long before the opportunity becomes available. In this webinar, attendees will learn what things they should be doing before the promotional opportunity becomes available and what they should do during and after their promotional interviews that will increase their chances of getting the promotion they desire.

Instructors will review topics such as shadowing, building rapport, policy review, appearance, demeanor, reputation, and attitude. Attendees will have the opportunity to discuss commonly asked promotional interview board questions, and the best ways to answer them to leave a lasting impact on the interview panel members.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Our specialized training and resources bridge the gap between generic leadership courses and traditional forensic technician training, equipping you with the skills and knowledge needed for professional development in your forensic career.
