IF YOU'RE DOING THEIR JOB, THEN WHO'S DOING YOURS: RETHINKING THE ROLE OF THE "WORKING SUPERVISORS"

July 18, 2025 | 1200 - 1400 EST

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Being a working supervisor—one who balances supervisory duties while also handling casework—can be incredibly challenging. This presentation will explore the common pitfalls of this dual role, including burnout, lack of time for leadership responsibilities, and difficulty transitioning from peer to leader.

Attendees will gain strategies for managing their workload effectively, prioritizing tasks, and setting boundaries to ensure they can both lead their team and maintain quality work. Whether you're struggling to find balance or preparing to step into a working supervisor role, this session will provide practical insights to help you succeed.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Our specialized training and resources bridge the gap between generic leadership courses and traditional forensic technician training, equipping you with the skills and knowledge needed for professional development in your forensic career.
